Hallowe'en Frolic

Mr. and Mrs. E. Michener entertained at a very pretty and jovial Hallowe'en frolic on Tuesday evening of last week. The spacious residence was handsomely decorated with lanterns, witches, fruits and other features connected with this festive celebration, and the company enjoyed numerous games, guessing contests, and the like. The open grates afforded ample opportunity for roasting chestnuts, popping corn, and other such old-time frolics. Refreshments were served during the evening, and one of the features was choice snow apples grown by Mr. Michener himself on his ranch in B.C. Edward Walton had charge of the orchestra, which rendered choice selections during the evening. The company returned home shortly after midnight, greatly pleased with their evening's amusement.

A Splendid Entertainment

All who were at the firemen's last concert declared it was one of the cleanest and most enjoyable concerts they ever had the pleasure of listening to. Next Friday evening the second company of the series make their appearance in Red Deer; they are the Woods Lady Choral Trio and Miss Maxwell, the famous reader. The firemen have no hesitation in recommending this company to one and all. The prices are reasonable, the programme classical enough to please the most fastidious and beautiful enough to be enjoyed by everyone. Miss Maxwell alone will be well worth the admission fee. Help the Firemen along by attending their entertainment.

Horn Hill

On Sunday, November 5th, Harvest Thanksgiving services were held in the Methodist church, Horn Hill. The church was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The afternoon service was conducted by the Rev. R. Pearson of Red Deer, and the evening service was conducted by Mr. Bateman of Big Bend. Very large crowds were present at each service.

On Friday, Nov. 10th, a chicken supper will be held in the Horn Hill school house at 7 o'clock, after which the Red Deer Methodist choir, who are preparing special music for the occasion, will give a concert in the church. Admission, supper and concert, 50c. This is the great event of the season and a large crowd is expected. Proceeds for church renovation fund.

Conservative Rally

There was a most enthusiastic rally of local Conservatives, Friday night last, in the Oddfellows' hall, when a most enjoyable time was spent in speech making, music and recitations. The chair, in the absence of President F. H. Tallman, who was laid up with a bad cold in the eye, was occupied by District President J. A. Carswell, who made a few brief introductory remarks. He drew attention to the handwriting on the wall, and said he would not be surprised to see the Premier of Alberta located in Red Deer at an early date.

The musical part of the programme was furnished by Edward Walton and his orchestra, and songs by Dick Thompson and W. H. Hadley, which were well received. Dr. George also gave a recitation in his usual happy manner. Short addresses were delivered by G. W. Greene, Dr. J. Colison, and Ed. Carswell, all speaking in glowing terms of the splendid outlook of the Conservative party. E. Michener, M.P.P., gave a most excellent address and was loudly applauded. He touched on the different questions at issue lightly, but dealt at length on the A. & G. W. question. He will deliver an address, it is hoped, in a few days, when Mr. Tweedie and other members of the party will also speak. The meeting closed with cheers for Mr. Michener and the National Anthem.

She came to Alberta in 1908 to make her home with her daughter and grandchildren. She is survived by one brother, Dr. John Thorburn, of Ottawa. Three of her six grandchildren live in Red Deer, A. T. and W. J. Stephenson and Mrs. Mann. Mrs. Jackson was a Methodist and took an active interest in all departments of church work.

PILES

Nothing known to Science is better for this painful ailment than Zam-Buk. It reduces inflammation, stops bleeding, ends the agony. Easily applied and clearly. Why go on suffering? Why not try it? Read the following cures. Some Proofs of Zam-Buk's Power.

MR. THOMAS J. HOGAN, Champion Clog Dancer of Canada, 59 Chambord Street, Montreal, writes:

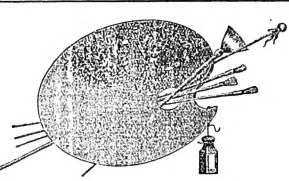

"For some time past I have been troubled with Piles, but this year I suffered so much that I was obliged to cancel a number of engagements. I tried all the so-called remedies that were recommended, but they seemed to do me no good. Having been advised to try Zam-Buk, I purchased a fifty-cent box and after applying it a few times I felt marked relief. I continued with the Zam-Buk treatment and the relief was extended into a permanent cure."

MR. WILLIAM KENTY, of Upper Nine Mile River, Hants Co., N. S., says:— "I suffered terribly from Piles, the pain at times being almost unbearable. I tried various ointments but all failed to do me the slightest good. I was tired of trying remedies when I heard of Zam-Buk, and thought as a last resource I would give this balm a trial. I procured a supply, and after a very short time Zam-Buk effected what several other ointments and medicines had failed to effect—a complete cure."

Zam-Buk also cures ECZEMA, BLOOD POISON, ULCERS, COLD SORES, CHAPPED HANDS, SCALP SORES, CUTS, BURNS, BRUISES, SCALDS and all SKIN INJURIES AND DISEASES. All druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, post free for price. Refuse harmful substitutes.

OUR WEEKLY Short Story

COLECHIN'S CREDITOR

A Laughable Story of a Man Who Met His Match

Mrs. Colechin rushed excitedly into the kitchen, where her husband sat over his breakfast, with a telegram in his hand.

"Sam!" she panted; "Uncle Ned is in England—just sent this—from Liverpool. Something to do with selling his silver mines."

Mr. Colechin stared vacantly at his wife a moment, and then jumped excitedly from his chair.

"He's—well, he's in London by mid-day!" he gasped. "He's going to see his niece's husband—the staid old man with his own letter a year and not so much as a tennar postal order in it! I'll rush off right away. I'll be back about having the week off; then I'm bound for Boston. Meanwhile you see about settling the spare room straight. Mary, and have a nice bit of dinner ready for him—understand?"

"But, Sam, he's practically a millionaire; he'll be putting up at one of the big hotels!"

"He's coming here! He's got to—it I have to drag him! If I can't convince him he's got a duty to his down-trodden, poverty-stricken relations—well, I ain't his nephew-in-law, that's all!"

When old Mr. Flinders stopped out of the railway carriage at Boston he found his niece's husband waiting with outstretched hand and smiling face.

"Samuel Colechin, I guess!" exclaimed the man from Nevada cheerily. "It was real bully of you to come and greet me! Perhaps you can put me on to a decent cheap hotel, right?"

"Hotel—pooh! You're not going to a hotel; you're coming home to Mary and me!" retorted Mr. Colechin, determinedly.

"Well—well, Samuel, I guess you know best; I'll be a savior, anyhow. Do we take a car?"

"Oh, no," echoed Mr. Colechin; "no, no. We'll take a cab, it's more private, as I want a talk with you, and—and it's quicker."

"I've had a bully passenger!" replied the old man, in answer to a solicitous inquiry. "I'll not be a nuisance to you, but on the boat, so my fare didn't cost me a cent."

"Though it cost about $125 to come over!" said Mr. Colechin, alarmed by his relative's saving propensities.

"That's first class," explained Mr. Flinders. "I came second—had got all the steerage was booked."

Mr. Colechin gazed and was silent.

"Well, how do you prosper, nephew?" inquired the cheery traveler at length.

"Very bad!" snapped Mr. Colechin. "I've a fight against overwhelming odds for the likes of me. Trade's shocking for us poor beggars. If I only had someone with sufficient faith in me to advance say a modest fifty quid, I'd be my own boss and never without a job in the shop, I'll warrant."

The old man seemed to miss the point of the suggestion, and by this time the cab had pulled up at the Colechin domicile. Mr. Flinders put his hand in his pocket when they descended.

"That's all right, uncle!" suggested the other feebly.

"Very good; I guess you understand the customs of this country better than I do."

Mr. Colechin paid and said things to himself.

Uncle Flinders was thoroughly enjoying his week with his relations, he declared. He insisted on being taken to all the show places of the metropolis, and wound up each evening with a theatre or music-hall, but at the critical moment Samuel always had to pay, the old man would put his hand in his pocket, and then exclaim: "I'm fair minded, with your English coinage and customs; you settle this time, nephew."

Samuel thought of Saturday coming along without wages; of the bills run up with tradespeople during the week for extra lavishes for the victors; of the money he had borrowed for the same purpose.

"He may 'part up' when he's going," said Mr. Colechin to himself, "but then again he may not. With a brilliant inspiration born of desperation, he sought out Mr. Tom Dirk, the young man who was keeping company with his daughter Lucy, and confided in him the story of Mr. Flinders' meanness and hard-heartedness, concluding with:

"Now, we must touch him some how, Tom, and I want your help. Supposing I owed lots and lots of rent—would you do it, I mean. What would happen?"

"You'd have the 'bums' in."

"Quite right; and if such a thing happened in his niece's own home, and he hasn't a heart of concrete, he'd pay 'em out. Now, in consideration of what I may be able to do for you and Lucy, young man, I want you to be a bailiff for once—to-morrow afternoon when Uncle is jacking his trunk. There'll be no one else at home; I'll arrange that."

GOING AWAY

A Domestic Sketch with Mr. and Mrs. Brown as the Characters

"William," said Mrs. Brown, as they sat before the fire—"William!"

Mrs. Brown obstinately refused to bring down the newspaper behind which he sat.

"William," said Mrs. Brown again, "I'm going away. Mother's asked me to go and stop with her for a month."

"Very well, my dear," said Mr. Brown immovably. "When do you start?"

"Do not that paper down and listen to me!"

"Can't I hear just as well with the paper up?"

"Don't be silly! You don't care a bit!"

"Well, you don't want me to object, do you?"

"When do you start?" he asked pleasantly.

"Do you think you really could manage without me for a whole month?" asked Mrs. Brown.

"I'll try," replied her husband.

"I'll go, then," said Mrs. Brown; and went to make arrangements for packing.

Next evening they referred to it again.

"And you don't mind my leaving you in the lurch, William?"

"It would be no good if I did," he said.

Mrs. Brown had been married three years.

"But, William, if you don't want me to go—"

"Haven't I said that I'm only too pleased that you've the chance of a change?"

Mrs. Brown waxed suspicious.

"When I've gone he'll ask in his bachelor friends, and they'll smoke in the drawing-room!" she mused.

"What a thought!"

Aloud she said:

"William, I'm starting on Thursday at ten o'clock. Now, while I'm away, remember—you mustn't go into the drawing-room with your muddy boots, or—"

"Draw up a set of rules, my dear," suggested Mr. Brown, "and I'll learn 'em in the train on my way to the city."

"William, don't be silly! And if you even dream of eating cheese before you go to bed—"

"The dream comes afterwards," Della, Mr. Brown pointed out, "not before."

"After all," she said, coming over and sitting on his knee, "there's no place like home, is there? And men are so helpless!"

And Mr. Brown smiled.

Teachers' Convention at Innisfail

The Convention of the Red Deer Teachers' Association was held on the 26th and 27th inst. at Innisfail and has been pronounced the best in the history of the Association.

The chair was occupied most ably and successfully by Mr. E. J. Miller, B.A., of Red Deer, Vice President of the Association.

Three sessions were held for actual work at which papers were presented as follows:

- Nature Study by Inspector Scott, B.A.
- Drawing by Mr. A. M. Boyd, B.A.
- The Power of Books by Mr. A. M. Gibson, M.A.

The place of Temperance on the Public School Course by Mr. G. W. McKenzie, B.A.

Inspector Scott pointed out that the object of Nature Study was to keep the child interested in nature; that it was not a study of botany, agriculture or chemistry, not a study for acquiring information in any way, except from observation. The environment of the child was the material for study and the one great question "why?" Methods were outlined and results indicated.

The paper on Civics by Inspector Boyd was given in anticipation of the new course of study. The relation of civics to the subjects of the school course was shown and method of adapting this subject to the different grades were suggested. The results expected from the subject were more thorough citizenship, laws and government and a deeper patriotic feeling.

Mr. Boyd in his paper on drawing, advocated the use of color by means of chalk, crayon and water color before the use of the pencil and maintained that color-teaching was not by ignorance of color. He urged every teacher to have a definite work scheme by which to proceed from simple to more complicated forms. He made also for original work, working from objects gathered from all sources or manufactured by the pupils.

The Rebellion in China

Nothing Will Save the Throne But Reform

(Crowded out last week)

Pekin, Oct. 30.—The Viceroy of Canton telegraphed to the Chinese cabinet today that the situation is most critical. He says he cannot rely on the new army and has no ammunition for the old troops, upon whom he must depend.

He strongly urges the government immediately to grant all the demands of the political agitators, particularly an early parliament and the ending of all Manchus from the cabinet.

DIAMOND NEW PARLIAMENT.

Pekin, Oct. 30.—A caucus of the constitutional and progressive parties, comprising a majority of the members of the national assembly, has formulated a series of demands upon the throne for immediate radical reforms as the only possibility of averting the disruption of the empire.

The assemblymen construe the overthrow of governmental authority in the present crisis as a political rather than an anti-dynastic revolt, but assert their conviction that its speedy realization is the only way to avert the disruption of the empire.

The assembly will demand the immediate appointment of a truly responsible cabinet.

Recognizing that the appointive power rests with the throne, the assembly makes no specific recommendation, but this means that the Manchus and other incompetents will be removed and strong cabinet members made premier, with power to name his ministry.

The assembly demands the election of a parliament with full powers to take no severe measures against the rebels; that the cabinet reformers Kang-Yueh and Liang-Chi-Chao now exiled, be recalled for service.

The leaders announce that if these steps are taken the assembly will vote unanimously and approve the necessary loans to put down the armed rebellion.

PANIC IN PEKIN.

Pekin, Oct. 30.—The situation in Pekin is becoming worse. A veritable panic prevails among the Manchus, and the Manchus women are adopting Chinese and attempting to make their feet appear small.

The leaders announce that if these steps are taken the assembly will vote unanimously and approve the necessary loans to put down the armed rebellion.

Women's Beauty

A head of luxuriant hair is sure to be attractive. But nature has not crowned every woman with glorious hair. Some very lovable women have treated rather scantily in this respect.

For instance, there are tens of thousands of women in Canada today, who have harsh, faded and lustreless hair, who are unattractive simply because they do not know that they may have the whims of nature can be overruled by the genius of science.

If you are a woman without beautiful hair, do not permit your attractions to be hidden because of this slight misfortune.

Go today to Gaetz-Cornett Drug & Book Co., and buy a large bottle of Parisian Sage for 50 cents, use it each night, and you will notice the harsh, repulsive hair disappear, and in its place will come soft, silky, bright and luxuriant hair.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by Gaetz-Cornett Drug & Book Co. to cure dandruff, itching of the scalp, and stop falling hair in two weeks, or money back.

THE GRIT PARTY BADLY MIXED

It is amusing to read the Grit papers these days; no two of them agree. One says one thing and the next one denies it. The guiding hand that has led them in the past, and to which they have clung, seems paralyzed, and they are all at sea as to a line of policy to adopt. And well they may be. For years they have taken their cue from the paid organizer at Ottawa and, now the pay has ceased, the organizing ceases also. The ex-Minister of Labor says: "We must keep close to the fundamental principle of reciprocity. It is a thing for which we have always fought and which it seems to me will commend itself to the people." The Halifax Chronicle, a leading Grit paper and Mr. Fielding's organ, says: "The Liberal party, we venture without hesitation to assert, will never again take up the question of reciprocity as an important feature of its policy." On the other hand the Edmonton Bulletin says Liberals have not dropped reciprocity. Other Liberal papers say they have and that they never should have introduced such a foolish cry. In Ontario Hon. A. G. MacKay, leader of the Liberal party, has been kicked out because he can't lead his party to victory; and in Alberta, after the landslide to the Liberal forces in the bye-elections, the Calgary organ asks Hon. Duncan Marshall to clear his skirts of the charge of scandal in connection with the Minnie M. and other escapades, or to step down and out. So it goes on. One says one thing and one says another until the reader who tries to follow their wrangling and squirming becomes dizzy-headed and at last commits the whole ranc, bag and baggage, to the eternal bow-wow.

WHY THIS CONSERVATIVE VICTORY?

The Stratheona Plaindealer, one of the strongest Liberal papers of the province, deals plainly with the recent Conservative sweep in the bye-elections, and hands out some pretty hot stuff for the party leaders to swallow. It says: "A hundred party minds may invent a hundred excuses as to why the Liberal strongholds of the south at the bye-elections Tuesday returned Conservative representatives to the legislature. And the seeker after truth may cover this array of explanation without once finding an excuse that makes clear in a satisfactory manner the real reason for the unexpected result. That Calgary should elect a member to follow in the footsteps of R. B. Bennett need cause no great surprise in any quarter since the C.P.R. is manifestly a Conservative stronghold, but that the electors of Gleichen, Lethbridge and Pincher Creek—especially of the latter places—should repudiate the present provincial government reveals a condition of affairs that may well give rise to careful thought."

It is said among supporters of the Sifton administration that Liberalism is as strong today in Alberta as it ever was. The overwhelming majorities given in the recent federal elections go a long way in substantiation of this statement. Then why this strange ver-dient rendered by the Liberals of the south Tuesday. Why should constituencies which voted Liberal scarcely more than one month ago cast ballots in favor of Conservative candidates in this provincial contest?

The interrogation is on many tongues throughout this broad Alberta, and it seems that the only plausible explanation of the paradox is that the policy of Premier Sifton in regard to the Alberta and Great Waterways embroglio is not popular with the masses. It is in the south that support was expected to rise for the action taken in connection with the case by the present government, but that this support is lacking in the constituencies which were lately represented by advocates of the Premier's policy, is clear as the morning sun. The Great Waterways railway question was made the paramount issue in the southern campaign, and Premier Sifton and his cabinet worked hard and consistently to make the decision quite the opposite from what it was. The Conservatives have cause for rejoicing.

The assembling of the Legislature will be watched by the country with keenest interest. While apparently overwhelmingly Liberal, the administration is admittedly not so secure as the official roster might indicate. It will be remembered that on divisions over the Waterways issue last session, several of the Liberal members, led by ex-Premier Rutherford and ex-Attorney General Cross, voted with the Opposition against the Government. On these occasions Premier Sifton had a majority of but seven, exclusive of the speaker. Of the Premier's supporters at that time, Messrs. Buchanan, Warneok and McArthur are now missing, their places being taken by out and out opponents in Messrs. Steward, Kemmis and Riley. On a basis of last year the majority of the administration is now reduced to two or three and if there is no change in the situation when the house reassembles the progress of the government will be made precarious indeed.

One of the most astonishing features of the election aftermath is an editorial charge by the Calgary Albertan that Hon. Duncan Marshall is responsible for the reverse to the government. It calls upon the Minister of Agriculture to clear himself of the charges made against him as being a crook in the late Ross government of Ontario.

DUNCAN MARSHALL AGAIN.

(Edmonton Saturday News)

The Albertan says that Mr. Marshall should take some steps to dispose of the rumors that have been circulated in regard to him. It is difficult to see how he could do anything more than he has. It has been alleged that he was the associate of Cap. Sullivan, Duncan Bole, and others who were mixed up in the unsavory revelations that were made in the election courts of Ontario as to the methods which were resorted to in the effort to keep the Ross government in power. There is no question that much that was done at that period was a disgrace to Liberalism, and it is also true that Mr. Marshall was an active figure in behalf of the Liberal cause at that time. But so were many others against whom the slightest suggestion of having been guilty of crooked work has never been made. Mr. Marshall states that he never appeared in any election case, even as a witness, and till someone makes something like a specific accusation against him, he cannot very well go any further.

Under these circumstances, it doesn't look right for the Albertan to hold him personally responsible for a result for which the policy adopted by the administration as a whole is clearly to blame.

CHAMP WANTS ANNEXATION

Fredericton, N.B., Nov. 3.—"Ninety-ninth of the people favor the annexation of Canada," declared Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives, here today. "And I don't care who hears me say it."

Beginning with a speech here today, Mr. Clark was scheduled to make addresses in 11 towns in the third Nebraska district in the interests of Dan V. Stevens, Democratic candidate for congress, to succeed the late Representative James P. Lester.

The speaker's remarks concerning the annexation of Canada caused much comment among his hearers. "I am willing," he said, "to make this proposition. You let me run for president on a platform calling for the annexation of Canada, in so far as this country can accomplish that end, and let President Taft run against me opposing annexation, and I would carry every state in the nation."

A glimmer of hope has at last shed its reluctant rays over the gloomy ranks of the disheartened Liberal party. They have succeeded in carrying a bye-election in the Old Country.

C. Hiebert, ex-M.P.P. for Disbury, says he may be a candidate in that constituency, but it will only be as an Independent Conservative and in opposition to the Sifton government. Poor Sifton, what has he ever done to "Don" to deserve such shabby treatment. This is the last straw.

Harold Riley, the elected Conservative member for Gleichen, was an official of the Rutherford Government from start to finish, yet the people of that constituency selected him by nearly five hundred votes in preference to the candidate of the discredited Sifton Government. How are the nights fallen.

The Calgary Albertan before the deluge said:

"The provincial contest in Calgary is not so intensely heated that it is keeping many people awake at nights. The public cannot get it into their minds what the opponents of the Sifton government really mean by their opposition to it."

Now we do hope our dear contemporary in Calgary has a vague glimmering by this time of what the opponents of the Sifton Government really meant.

Medicine Hat is now mad all over and things have got to go in that burg of gas or they are going to knock the reason why. Last week public minded citizens donated the magnificent sum of twenty thousand dollars for publicity purposes and the Council, by a unanimous vote, granted twenty thousand dollars more for the same purpose, and a great forward movement is to be inaugurated in advertising the cheap power possibilities of that city. Hurrah for Medicine Hat.

The Toronto Globe is speaking of the colony paid Sir Wilfrid Laurier by Earl Grey, on severing his connection with Canada as Governor-General, said he administered a severe snubbing to those British Imperialists who cheered themselves hoarse over the Borden victory. Such rot is only to be expected from such rank partisan papers as the Globe. There is not an Imperialist in Canada who has not the highest respect for Sir Wilfrid Laurier as one of Canada's most able citizens, and there are thousands of Conservatives who agree with Earl Grey in his eulogy of Sir Wilfrid for his able service to the Dominion of Canada during the best years of his life.

The Italian-Turco war continues, but evidently both sides are determined to prevent much news reaching the outside regarding the progress of hostilities. Italy is slowly and at a great loss of life tightening her hold on Tripoli. She is finding that the Turks and their Arab allies can fight desperately, and plot with their usual cunning. Italian soldiers are charged with having slain non-combatants, as well as soldiers, and with having committed other acts of cruelty. It is hoped that more detailed and accurate reports may contradict these stories. Nothing will turn opinion so rapidly against Italy as authentic reports of cruelty.

TWO GOLD MINES IN RED DEER.

The Calgary Albertan says: Gold has been discovered in the Red Deer district, which, strange to say, is the very spot where a leader of the opposition was also discovered. Great is Red Deer of the gold discovery and the leader of the opposition.

HE HAS OUR SYMPATHY

The editor of the News-Letter writes: "We have been informed that one of our newly married young ladies kneads bread with her gloves on. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on; he needs it with his trousers on; and unless the delightful reader of this silly rag of freedom may soon, he will need bread without a darn thing on."

FATAL WRECK ON THE C. & E. NEAR CROSSFIELD

Fireman of Midnight Passenger Train to Edmonton Killed and Engineer Severely Scalded

An Open Switch Cause of the Accident

Calgary, Nov. 1.—When it ran into an open switch at Wessex, five miles north of Crossfield this morning about 2.30 o'clock, the express that left here at midnight for Edmonton was severely scalded, and J. Carson, baggage man, and a barakeman named Parsons were injured; all members of the crew were Calgary men. None of the passengers were injured, although some of them sustained a shaking up.

The north-bound night express for Edmonton was scheduled to pass the south-bound freight at Wessex this morning. The passenger was running well on time when the siding was reached, the freight was there sidetracked, waiting to proceed after the passenger had gone north.

Expecting that all was set in readiness for his train, the engineer of the passenger was steaming right ahead, but when a few yards from the entrance to the siding, he noticed that the switch was open. Applying the emergency brakes, he stuck to his post and made every effort to stop his train. It was too late, however, and taking the siding the passenger crashed into the freight.

British Comment on Champ Clark's Latest

We Have Had a Little Too Much of This Sort of American "Humor" Says Morning Post in Discussing His Annexation Speech.

London, Nov. 3.—The Morning Post commenting on Champ Clark's annexation speech, which created some of a sensation here, says that when Clark states that nine-tenths of the people of his country favor the annexation of Canada and when he proposes to run for the presidency on the platform of annexation, the British and Canadian people have some right to complain.

It is not friendly for a political leader of the American people holding a responsible position to use language of this sort about a neighboring power. It is in marked contrast to the declaration of Premier Borden that there was nothing hostile to the American Republic in the result of the Canadian elections.

"We have had a little too much of this sort of American 'humor' from Champ Clark," comments the Post. "American manufacturers desire to control and exploit Canadian raw material, and it is to their predatory instincts that politicians like Champ Clark make an appeal in such speeches. It should serve to remind us that the Canadian position has been imperilled owing to the system of the contravention of the Rush-Bagot treaty by the United States, since persisting in keeping a formidable fleet of armed vessels upon waters regarding which the limitation of armaments has long since been agreed upon."

Oliver To Join Sifton Cabinet

Premier Plans For Important Changes

Dominion Politics No Longer Attract Former Minister of the Interior—Likely to Run in Edmonton if Given Portfolio When Proposed Shake-Up Takes Place in Provincial Affairs.

The Edmonton Journal, Saturday, stated that important changes are imminent in the Sifton cabinet.

Frank Oliver is reported to have decided to come to the rescue of Premier Sifton and enter the Provincial government. He will forsake the now, for him, barren field of Dominion politics at Ottawa, it is said, if given a portfolio at Edmonton.

Some members of the present Sifton regime will probably be given the option of resigning. Other members of the legislature may be included in the proposed cabinet.

Before the session of the legislature proceeds very far it is almost certain that the premier will announce the appointment of a minister of municipalities.

This will become incumbent upon the passage of the proposed Rural Municipalities bill, now in course of preparation.

department, but having the consent of the Saskatchewan bill, it could be got into shape for first reading very shortly after the session opens.

CLAMOR FOR RECOGNITION.

A number of the Sifton followers have clamored for more recognition than they have been given. For a long while the premier granted them only silent neglect.

The premier anticipated having a nice lot of cabinet offices to offer a number of steadfast supporters; the natural resources might have been handed over to him, if Sir Wilfrid Laurier really had intended trusting him to any Sifton region.

Since that patronage had not materialized, some of Mr. Sifton's forced allies want, to quote the vernacular, "to know where they get off!" Many think the portfolio of the minister of municipalities would suit them. But only one can get the office. And that one must represent a safe riding.

MUST BE SURE WINNER.

By-elections are not in favor around the parliament buildings just now. The premier does not want to run another chance. No matter who the aspirant for cabinet rank may be, his first qualification must be that if he have to stand for reelection, he can carry his riding "hands down."

It is understood doubtful if there is a single riding in the whole of Alberta which could with certainty be won for the Sifton government today.

Manifold causes are bringing about some of the defections in the Sifton cabinet.

The difficulty of finding a seat for Mr. Oliver will at once arise. The present contemplation is that a general election shall be sprung upon the province. It has not been ascertained yet whether Premier Sifton will run the risk of getting beaten in the house, and then have to go to the country as leader of a government discredited in the legislature itself, or whether he will take the bull by the horns and declare an election immediately the house meets.

MAY RUN IN EDMONTON.

It is considered doubtful if Frank Oliver will strive to be elected in Edmonton. He will come forward as the special exponent of a railway development policy rarely promulgated by Mackenzie and Mann. If John Duggall should withdraw, and it is highly probable he may not run again, Mr. Oliver will have for his running mate in the election either Alderman Bellamy or ex-Alderman Garripy.

This means that Mr. Oliver will once again make Edmonton pass through all the tortuosity of a forced Liberal nomination. Premier Sifton and Mr. Oliver conferred regarding the whole situation for long while yesterday. They expected to see Sir William Mackenzie at any time, if they have not already done so.

Grain Growers' Meet

Express Satisfaction in Borden's Promises

Winnipeg, Nov. 3.—The directors of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association have passed a number of resolutions expressing satisfaction at the attitude taken by Premier Borden in his address to the Western farmers last summer re (1) Government operation of terminal elevators by an independent committee; (2) Government construction and operation of the Hudson Bay railway; (3) An act to facilitate the establishment of co-operative societies; (4) Facilities for exporting chilled meat; and (5) Compensation for stock killed by railways.

The expectation is expressed that those promises will be implemented at the first session of the parliament. The defeat of reciprocity is regretted. The general platform of the Grain Growers is reaffirmed.

MARRIAGE.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Clarke, Cobourg, on Wednesday evening, their youngest daughter, Miss Irene, was married to Mr. Edward Shenton McQuoid, L.L.B., of Edmonton, Alberta. Rev. J. Kenneth Mitchell, an old friend of the family, officiated. Only the immediate members of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. McQuoid left later for a trip to Montreal. They will reside at Edmonton—Toronto Globe.

Capt. The Dominique is suing the Saskatchewan Land & Homestead Company, claiming the right to purchase the N.E. 23-35-28, W. 4. The Company disputes his claim. "When Knighthood was in Flower" by Miss Anna Day and her splendid Company, on Wednesday evening last in the Lyric, was perhaps the best piece of clever acting ever seen on a Red Deer stage. The company was a strong one and the parts all well taken, but Miss Day was the star, and those who failed to attend missed the choicest treat of the season.

There has been splendid skating on Gaetz Lake the past week or so, and the young folks have enjoyed it to the full. It has not been entirely safe, as one or two careless skaters have received wet feet, but after this there will be no more danger.

Matters are beginning to look a little desperate for the stacking and thrashing of much of the grain in the neighborhood, as the farmers have now been held for two weeks except the lucky ones that had their crop all stacked before the frost and snow made its appearance.

The following was clipped from the Calgary Herald and, to say the least, is a slight deviation from the truth: "The Normal School were successful in their trip to Red Deer and beat the High School in that town by a score of 10-5. Although the High School put up very good rugby, the Normal boys were too much for them."

The Red Deer Y.M.C.A. have formed a basketball league and a schedule is drawn up for the games between the different teams. Although many of the boys have never played basketball before, there are some old players in town, and the games should be very interesting. The first game will be played Friday night, at the Y.M.C.A. rooms between a school team and J. Mann's team.

Most people have heard of the Rev. Dr. John G. Paton, missionary to the New Hebrides Islanders, His son, the Rev. Fred G. Paton, is following in his father's footsteps, and will speak of this work in the Presbyterian church, Red Deer, on Friday evening, Nov. 10th, at 8 o'clock.

An offering will be taken for the work. The usual Wednesday evening meeting will not be held this week.

A. Johnston; Vice Pres., Miss Margaret Black; Secretary, Miss Lulu Sprouls; Treasurer, Miss McCartney; Organist, Miss Walker; James Malcolm, Mrs. Wanless and Mrs. McEwen are conveners of the devotional, literary and social committees, respectively.

The Calgary Tigers won the Provincial Championship by defeating the Edmonton Eskimos on Saturday last 14-0. These teams were tied for first place, having played a tie game before, and there was much interest shown in the game. The Calgary team had been strengthened while the Edmonton team had been slightly weakened by some of their best players being hurt recently. The University of Alberta were defeated by the Calgary High School, but they win the championship of Alberta on their plurality of points in the two games.

The "Men's Own" of the Presbyterian Church have fitted up a most comfortable club room on Gaetz Ave. in the office formerly occupied by Cushing Bros. The following papers will be kept regularly on file: The two local papers, the Edmonton Bulletin, Calgary Herald, Winnipeg Free Press, Montreal Daily Witness, Edinburgh Scotsman, British Weekly, Illustrated London News, and eight or ten of the best magazines published. A number of games have also been provided. The club room will be open every week night from 7 till 10 o'clock, and is free for the use of all men. Drop in and spend a profitable evening in a comfortable room and get acquainted with the other fellows.
